

Check Explanations

12/18/2019 $1,371.00 - christmas presents, I emailed the fiduciary hub to get permission regarding spending for holiday gifts; can provide documentation upon request

12/3/2019 $317.52 - clothes for him, plus car service to visit

12/20/2019 $300.00 - gift for his sister with mental retardation who he always took care of and would want me to continue his tradition

2/3/2020 $1,000.00 - birthday gift to myself

1/26/2020 $68.00 - baked goods for staff and car service

3/4/2020 $90.00 - car service, baked goods for staff, clothes for him

3/21/2020 $400.00 - donated to charity on his behalf

4/3/2020 $339.00 -paying myself back for therapy which was something he always took care of

Transfer Explanations

5/4/2020 - $25,000. to x8116

5/5/2020 - $4,000.00 to x0907

5/7/2020 - $304.00 to x0907

These transfers happened shortly after my dad passed and I think my mentality was to consoloidiate everything under my name. It feels like a blur now but I do remember feeling really frenzied trying to get everything in order after his passing, closing accounts, letting certain insitutions know, making copies of documents for the will etc.